The American Institute of Architects

Dear Miss Gervais:

The enclosed letter will inform you of the request of Jean G. Killion to resign her AIA membership. She is a member in good standing of the Pasadena Chapter.

You will note that the date of her letter is September 21, 1960. The Chapter had not carried through on this resignation because it had mistakenly understood that she wished to withdraw the resignation.

As it has now been made known that Miss Killion does indeed wish to resign, the Chapter requests that her resignation be made retroactive to January 1, 1961, so that she will not be liable for 1961 dues, either to the Chapter or The Institute.

Sincerely,
