Eligibility, Jury List and Release Form

Architecture's future depends on its next generation of leaders—and the educators who impact their lives. The Topaz Medallion for Excellence in Architectural Education honors those who educate others to ensure architecture's enduring excellence. This award, jointly presented by AIA and the Association of Collegiate Schools of Architecture, recognizes outstanding individual contributions in architectural education.
Eligibility	Candidates must be living at the time of nomination and must have spent at least a decade involved primarily in architectural education in North America. Colleagues, student, and former students may submit nominations.
Deadline	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• the deadline for submission completion is September 14, 2021 before 5 pm Eastern• all deadlines are strictly observed• there is no entry fee for this program

2022 Topaz Medallion for Excellence in Architectural Education Jury	The five-person jury is composed to two educators appointed by the ACSA, one student appointed by the AIAS, and two Architect members from the AIA Board of Directors or Strategic Council, whose background has been in architectural education recommended by the Secretary and appointed by the Board. 2022 Jury TBD Communication with the jury from the time of submittal to completion of the jury process by the candidate or anyone acting on their behalf is inappropriate and cause for disqualification.
Judging Criteria	The jury evaluates candidates based on how well they meet the criteria, which include how candidates have: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• affected a wide range of students over the years• addressed the future of architecture while honoring its tradition• transcended or united specific areas of expertise• become widely known—by architects, designers, educators, and the public—for the quality of their work Additional Considerations Throughout the submission, you are encouraged to highlight any aspects of the candidate’s work or life experience that may have reflected contributions or sensitivity concerning areas of special interest to the Institute, its members, and the architecture profession, including but not limited to the Public policies and Position Statements of the AIA. These might include such areas as diversity, sustainability, or the mentoring of emerging professionals, to the degree the candidate has had the opportunity to address them, or as these topics may enhance the presentation. For instance, AIA juries include evaluating Honors & Awards submissions relative to the AIA Framework for Design Excellence. While submissions do not have to adhere entirely or fit comprehensively with all measures from the framework, submitters are strongly encouraged to consider their submission materials in this context. For additional information visit the AIA Framework for Design Excellence website.
