June 15, 1953

Dear Sir:

Your application for membership in The Institute was received here with your check for $10.00 attached. Your desire to become a member of The Institute is appreciated by The Board.

Your attention is called to the revision in dues and admission fee, voted by the 1951 Convention of The Institute, and by The Board of Directors, respectively.

As of July 1, 1951, the first year's dues were set at $10.00 and are increased each succeeding year by $10.00, until regular dues are being paid. Each application must also be accompanied by a $10.00 admission fee, thus making a total of $20.00 due with an original application.

At the present time, regular dues are either $25.00 or $50.00, depending upon whether the net professional income of the member is, or is not, under $5,000.00 per annum.

Your application is in due order except that an additional payment of $10.00 is required. As soon as this payment is received The Secretary will do everything he can to expedite its progress.

Sincerely yours,

Secretary

DIGEST OF THE CAREER AND ACHIEVEMENTS OF
FRANCIS S. HAINES
HONOLULU, HAWAII

GENERAL

Princeton architectural graduate, 1941; naval officer until 1946. Masters in architecture, M.I.T., 1948, working diligently as designer, then principal, making through his professional effort, design talent and business sense, probably the most capable architectural firm in Hawaii, serving the profession by establishing this high quality of output in Hawaii.

PUBLIC SERVICE

By example, encouragement and action, Haines has not only produced results in public service but also encouraged many other architects to do so. As Task Force Committee chairman of the United Church for Christ, he brought together unions, business, churches and industry to set up the non-profit Hawaii Council for Housing Action which has sponsored a large number of low cost housing development of real human quality. His work with the Pastoral Counselling Service located volunteer ministers for people of low incomes. Stimulated poverty area residents to organize and decide on the use of OEO funds as member of Honolulu Community Action Program.

SERVICE TO PROFESSION

Hawaii Chapter, AIA, has been advanced through Haines' 13 leadership positions. Known as a man of action and excellence, he's often asked to do AIA Task Force work. Formation of annual Pan Pacific Award Citation by Hawaii Chapter encouraging young architects in Pacific Basin countries, outside Hawaii; first awardee, Kenzo Tange. Public relations efforts have put AIA in esteemed position in Hawaii. Chairman of Design Committee five times and now National Design Committee member, through his efforts has greatly aided the Hawaii Chapter position of always being asked an opinion on any public design issue in Hawaii.

DESIGN

An outstanding designer, Haines has informed the public about good design (see articles herewith) and has accomplished and stimulated excellent design within his own firm. (See 9 design awards by AIA, etc. on pages 3 and 3a). His firm being large has not reverted to "business only" approach but is design oriented through his efforts. Haines has strived for an indigenous architecture (see "Isle's Pavilion at Fair Held Lacking Charm"). He has spread his design talents widely as evidenced by many repeat clients. Considered noted authority in Honolulu on low cost housing design.

ARCHITECTURAL PRACTICE

Haines has exhibited a high degree of excellence in architectural practice by elevating his firm to one of the 500 largest in the Nation in 1970, according to Engineering News-Record and his A&E firm of Belt, Lemmon & Lo, was listed as one of the 100 largest in the nation by Architectural Forum in 1946. If you refer to the education portion of this portfolio, you will see Mr. Haines has spent many years teaching what he knows to students at the University of Hawaii.

Upon election to Membership Emeritus, all rights and privileges of membership, including the use of the title Member Emeritus written in full after the initials "AIA" or "FAIA," as the case may be, remain intact while the member is exempted from further dues payments to the Institute and the member's chapter and state.

Members Emeriti have the option to remain on the AIA mailing list for $40 per year. This fee helps defray mailing costs. Members Emeriti who do not wish to receive AIA mailings and publications need not pay this mailing charge. Membership Emeritus dues rates ($40) will apply to those members who upgrade their status to Emeritus by March 31 of the current year. After that date, Emeritus dues rates will be effective the year following acceptance to Emeritus status. The Lifetime Emeritus membership category provides the opportunity to eligible AIA members to receive lifetime service at the national level as a Member Emeritus by making a one-time payment of $500. Components may, but are not required to, participate in this membership category.

Mailing Instructions: Please mail application, with any applicable fee, TO YOUR LOCAL CHAPTER.

NOTE: Payments to The American Institute of Architects and to state and local components are not deductible as charitable contributions for federal income tax purposes. However, they may be deductible under other provisions of the Internal Revenue Code.

Dear Mr. Haines:

It is a pleasure to inform you that your membership classification has been changed to Member Emeritus.

We are grateful for your many years of support and we hope that your participation and interest will continue, though you are now relieved of further dues payments.

Sincerely yours,
